1. A regulation issued on 1 October 1951 requires every citizen in the Krakow area to perform night patrol duty with the local Militia (MO) on four nights a month. These night patrols consist of two militiamen and one civilian. The idea behind the regulation is to draw the civilian into the security network, making him an informer and co-responsible for the maintenance of security.
2. A permanent Militia control post, comprising a barrier and two men, has been set up on the Gdansk-Tezew road, three kilometers from Gdansk, just before reaching the village of Orunia. At this post, which has been established in connection with the restrictions on the use of motor fuel recently introduced in Poland, permits for motor vehicles are inspected.
